

OFFICIAL FILM 2002 FIFA WORLD CUP™

A new and comprehensive perspective of the story.
This will be a FIFA World Cup™ seen close up, from a fresh point of view.

2002 FIFA World Cup Korea/Japan™ was a World Cup of shocks and surprises, making history from start to finish. It was the first World Cup in Asia and the first to be co-hosted by two countries.

The official film of the 2002 FIFA World Cup Korea/Japan™ captures the unique spirit of this event in 120 minutes of football - on the pitch and behind the scenes. This is one of few official films able to offer a hint of the secret world behind the dressing room door - Senegal's victory celebrations, Mexico's prayer and team talk, the referees debriefing.

The memory is refreshed with the twists and turns of the action, from Papa Bouba Diop's sensational start to Ronaldo's emotional finish. The story is told chronologically, capturing in detail the successes of Turkey, the USA, Senegal; the demise of France, Argentina, Portugal and Italy - and how both Korea and Japan beat the pressure and the odds, against some notable opponents.

The film is special in a number of areas offering a highly personal view of incidents like Aghahowa's eight hand-spring goal celebration; Beckham's penalty; Zidane's tears; Trapattoni's frustration; Kahn's steel and Ahn's ecstasy as well as bench shots which express the full agony and excitement of the experience of the team managers.

The film also captures the colour and passion of Korea and Japan's welcome to the world. We will join four million Koreans on the streets of Seoul; we will see how Belgium's campaign took them to the edge of a volcano and what Grade AAA security really meant to the USA squad.
